Placing Exhibit At Battle Creek Out-Door Show

Air-Lock Logs, manufactured by the National Log Construction Co. of this city, are winning popular favor and are being acclaimed for their beauty, durability and practical uses whereever they are shown. They are for log cottages, homes, office buildings, garages and for just about every use where log construction is desired.

As the name implies, they are when placed in a building, airlocked. No air nor storms can

Mrs. Lars Rasmusson Passed Away

Mrs. Lars Rasmusson,one of the few remaining pioneers of Crawford County and northern Michigan, passed away at her home at 2:30 o'clock Friday morning fol-lowing a lingering illness of sev-eral years duration. Having lived in Grayling for over half a century Mrs. Rasmusson had witnessed the progress in the town's growth from almost its beginning and could relate many of the interesting happenings of the days

Mary Hanson was born in Wester of Kippinge, Denmark April 19, 1853. Her brother, the late Rasmus Hanson having come to this section when it was inhabited by the Indians and the country a wilderness, wrote to his family of the opportunities in America and they in turn came here to make their home. It was on Sept. 1, 1882 that she and the other members of her family arrived in cratic ballot. A number of new America and directly came to names appear on other lists of Grayling. A couple of years after coming here were spent in Manistee where on Sept. 29, 1888 she was united in marriage to Lars Rasmusson. They returned to Grayling in 1890 where their son son was a member of the Danish church and in her younger days took part in all its activities. She was held in high esteem by her hosts of friends and her example and influence will be a cherished memory to her family and friends in years to come.

EDUCATIONAL CLASSES BE-GIN IN CCC CAMPS

Educational activities at Higgins Lake Camp, Co. 672 CCC have started this week with class es in spelling, American government, and letter writing. It is expected more of these opportunities will be given shortly.

Prosecutor John J. Donahue of Roscommon will talk to the boys Thursday evening, March 15th, on citizenship. Next Thursday, March 22, Postmaster Bates of Grayling will tell something of the history of lumbering in this vicinity and intersperse his remarks with some of his own experiences during nearly a 60 years' residence here.

Jacks West Branch Merchants 34-25

Two of about the cleanest games of the season were played at the local gym Friday night when the Grayling Lumberjacks downed the West Branch Merchants and Mutt Burrows' Cubs took CCC 674 into camp.

In the Lumberjack-West Branch game smooth passing and fine team play were exhibited by both teams and turned out to be one of the nicest games to watch witnessed in some time. Neither team got very much ahead of each other and the score stayed at one and two point difference until the last quarter when the Jacks put on one of their old fashioned scoring sprees for which they are noted and the game ended 34 to 25.

Neal officiated at the Cubs-674 fracas and Sheehy refereed the Lumberjack-West Branch game.

Cubs Win Drawing themselves out of the hole in the second half Burrows' Cubs won a nice victory over CCC 674 the same evening, in a very interesting preliminary. During the first half Dawson and Sorenson were the only ones of the Cubs able to find the basket and they accounted for the five points, while 674 piled up a nice count of 14, with Page and Ken-

"Fighting Bob" drew out his own card and sent it back with this reply, "You pay too damn much."

NOTICE

To Unemployed Men

During the last few months we have avoided asking applicants to report National Reemployment Office periodically in order to determine whether or not they were still unemployed, the reason being that there was little op-portunity for securing other employment. Also that we did not want them to travel long distances merely for the purpose of stating that they were still out of work. Due to the change in industrial employment during the past few weeks, we bethat we have a considerable number in our files who are no longer available, and in order to check our files to this end, it will be necessary to make a complete re-registration of men unemployed who still desire

Renewals of registration can be made by personal call at the office or the applicant may mail us a postal card, or use the phone or send the message by someone else coming in, to signify that they are still desirous of employment.

All applicants desirous of employment but who have not renewed their application by March 30, 1934, will be cancelled from our available list.

ALPENA EDITOR HEADS CRIPPLED CHILDREN SOCIETY

The Michigan Society for Crippled Children, in collaboration with the International Society, is about to launch an intensive campaign to further the work for crippled children.

The campaign will be in charge of County Committees throughout the State, and will be conducted during the two weeks preceding Easter. The purposes are to make everyone familiar with the problems incident to the care, treatment, education and placement of crippled children, as well as the prevention of crippling conditions. and to secure, through the sale of Easter White Cross Seals at one penny each, to as many people as possible, sufficient funds which to carry on the work.

The cooperation of Judges of Probate, County Welfare Agents, County Commissioners of Schools, Superintendents of Schools, members of Rotary and other service clubs, Parent-Teacher Associations, the American Legion, the King's Daughters, Women's Clubs, school groups, church groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other ogranizations is being invited. and a thorough educational campaign will be conducted.

The idea of breaking away from paratively few contribu tions and popularizing the movement by acquainting everybody with it is the outstanding thing in the campaign.

SITTING beside a well known Michigan legislator at a luncheon in Lansing last Friday noon, he turned to us and remarked, "I suppose you are all steamed up about that proposed bridge across the Straits of Mackinac." We assured him that we were not, and that we were very much opposed to it. In the conversation that followed he stated that if the traffic across the straits were increased four fold and that the same charges for autos and passengers as are now in force were maintained that the revenue received would not be sufficient to make the required payments on the bonds and pay the interest.

And that wouldn't take into account the cost of maintenance and the cost of the attendance and patrol of such a structure. Even patrol of such a structure. Even the it might be an engineering and mechanical possibility to successfully construct such a bridge, of which we have our doubts, the cost to the taxpayers of this state would be far in access of the benefits derived. We contended that if the State will double its ferry service across the straits from Mackinaw City to St. Ignace and carry passengers and autos free, even then it would a bridge as is proposed. In this our friend readily agreed. While the talk is strong among some people of the State in favor of the bridge, still we believe that the people of Michigan are not ready to carry the burden of building and maintaining it. The impression that everyone in the northern counties is "steamed up" in favor of it, we sincerely believe is all wet. It hardly seems that anyone who has studied into the matter seriously could favor the construction of a bridge across the straits. We understand that the estimated cost is $30,000,000.

CLARENCE JOHNSON was one of the hardest fighters against prohibition with whom we have personal acquaintance. Now he is one of the regularly appointed nut-houses. For from present liquor inspectors, operating in this prospects we will have use for district. And he is now just as them when this legislative session big a booster for law enforcement is over.—Jim Haskins in Howard as he was a fighter against pro-hibition. The latter law he believed unfair and unwarranted and he bent his efforts toward its repeal and the establishment of the legal sale of good liquor instead of the poison that was being sold at exorbitant prices had during prohibition. Now, John and son says, everyone can have good liquor legally and there is no need bootleggers and moonshiners and they should be put out of business. Right here in Grayling, he says, there are people working for the CWA and boys serving in CCC camps who are being employed and supported by t he government, mostly from revenues received from liquor licenses, who are among the bootleggers' best customers. This is a fair example of "smiting the hand that feeds you." Johnson says that if every CWA and COC worker will. if they have to buy liquor, con-fine their purchases to buying from legal sources that the bootbootleggers won't have enough patronage left to keep him in business. Well, if you men who accept government money for services, have the least sense of gratitude then you will seriously consider what Mr. Johnson says. And how would it work if anyone serving on these public jobs is caught who can secure work a few months buying illicit liquor that he be each year in factories. Didn't preemptorily discharged. A disloyal employee should not be nearly a quarter of a century tolerated by the government any ago? Plymouth has profitted by more than by a private individual Mr. Ford's idea along this very or organization.

it was in early April and the snowbanks in the business spring is an example of the very districts were piled mountain high thing that President Roosevelt's in front of business places. Those nuisances are no longer in evidence and our batterment. Those nuis streets now are as tidy as those of any other community in the north. Naturally at this time of the year after the coldest winter within the memory of our oldest inhabitants, streets are dark from the soot of smoke. This will soon wash away and then after a good clean-up our streets should be as slick and clean as ever. Thanks to our late councils, and the seed sown by the former editor of the Avalanche, there is a fine local pride for clean streets and public

What Other Editors Have To Say

William H. Berkey of the Cas sopolis Vigilant resents the attempt of Mr. Mogan to fool people relative to taxation. Here is what Mr. Berkey said last week:

This man Mogan, who has charge of the state sales tax department, gives us a big laugh. We don't know whether he was trying to "kid" the people of Michigan or whether he didn't know better, but he said: "The state tax rate is the lowest since 1858 per thousand of valuation and the lowest since 1894 per capita. This has been due to the enactment of the general sales tax act, which has reduced the state property tax to 60c per thousand."

We wonder if Mr. Mogan never heard of the tax limitation a-mendment which the people themselves voted at the election of November of 1932. Won't someone please tell him about it; and you might also tell him that old Cass county's head tax alone amounts to over twenty-six thousand dollars, and goodness knows be cheaper than to construct such how much sales tax we pay in this a bridge as is proposed. In this county. Don't try to fool us again, Mr. Mogan, please don't.

Bichloride of mercury tablets, sugar coated pills or medicinal liquids should be put absolutely out of reach of child-ren. TERRAPLANE the BIGGEST car in the low price field

BIG car feel-BIG car roominess-BIG car riding ease! That's what Terraplane is offering you in 1934. The BIGGEST car in the low price field-15 feet, 10 inches long.

And when you remember that the BIG 1934 Terraplane is even more powerful than the Terraplane that broke one official A.A.A. record after another, that Terraplane economy is proved by owners' sworn statements—then you'll agree—the thrill of the low price field is the Terraplane 6!

The recommendation of the President that the principal as well as the interest be guaranteed by the government under the Home Owners' Loan law is worthy of consideration for at least two reasons. In the first place, those who hesitated to accept unguaranteed securities in exchange for mortgages, will have less to fear, and conversions will occur on a far larger scale than heretofore, and with less opposition from permortgages. Second it cannot be denied that the offering of securities in which the interest alone was guaranteed, tended to cast a stigma upon the whole mass of government paper. With the Loan bonds guaranteed, the phrase "as good as a government bond" will take on much of its old-time government bonds of all sorts will be strengthened.

It is said that another change in the personnel of the President's cabinet is contemplated, the Attorney General being transferred to the post of Governor of the Philippines. By the suggested John Guggisberg and Frank

Valuable Information For Poultry Owners

Freedom from disease is more to be desired in a poultry flock, than fancy breeding.

Healthy chicks can be produced only from or among healthy fowls. Seventy-five well kept fowls free from disease will produce more profit than a large flock where disease exists.

Chocolate Works Wonders With Simple Desserts

As a help in planning daily desserts, chocolate has long been a boon to housewives. To such simple desserts as steamed or cottage pudding, tapica or custard, chocolate brings a new appeal. And, for good measure, chocolate also adds considerable food value to these desserts—an important consideration when winter winds blow.

HOME TOWN GETS AID FROM BEGGAR

Quebec Mendicant Lends His Money to Birthplace.

Quebec.—Beggars in this old city are sharply divided by caste, there being the "regulars" who occupy fixed pitches and who only accept money, street car tickets or toand the "occasionals," mostly women, who go from house to ents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cook house, taking anything that is offered.

Begging is a regular racket at present, with most of those who work the various wards hailing from outside points, but while ragged erally the main stock in trade. these do not necessarily mean that the beggars are penniless. For instance, Bebe Emond, who is known as Campette and who has his pitch near the Capitol theater on Quebec's main shopping thoroughfare, is quite well off, and in addition to healthy bank account owns a block of houses in St. Sauveur, the French quarter, and has lent the municipality of Chicoutimi, which he claims as his birthplace, a considerable sum of money. Campette is an exception, how ever, for the majority of the professionals have fallen upon much tougher times, for which they blame Philippe Trottier, an insignificant little fellow. Trottier, who was a professiona beggar up to a couple of months ago, is now in Quebec jail, scheduled to be hanged on August 18 for the murder of Marie Anne Webster. During his trial, which aroused widespread interest, he appounced that his takings were between eight and twelve dollars a day.

Banking Act Gives Banks New Problem Washington.—Passage of the Glass-Steagall banking law-the banking act of 1933-has produced a condition among depos-itors in banks which was not forecast during debate on the bill in congress. The law prohibits payment of interest by banks on belences held by depositors in their checking accounts which are designated as demand depos its. But interest can be paid on time deposits which necessarily are left for stated periods, So. passage of the law has caused a lot of people to switch part of the money they have in their checking accounts to the accounts where they can get interest on the funds. The banks are worried as to how they will readjust their practices to meet this sudden condition, according to the treasury. It is nothing serious insofar as the safety of banks is concerned, but banks try to keep the money invested and the necessity of keeping it invested is much greater when it is left with the bank as a time deposit, for the interest rate always has been higher.

Jazz Time and Syncopation Thirteenth century ceremony There is no such thing as jam time. Jazz is merely noisy rhythm. Ragtime is, however, popular music with syncopated rhythm. Syncopa tion means that a regular accent has been delayed or hastened beyond its usual best. Generally, in common time, the accent comes on the first and third bests of each measure When the second note of a measure is held over and not struck on the pated. The same applies when the fourth best is held over the first of the following bar and not struck. It was not invented by jass writers but was in common use long before. "MORE SPEED"

LEONARD A. BARRETT

Another contribution to "Speed" has been made by the Pullman company of Chicago

They have built a train capable of running a hundred and ter miles an hour The metal used in the construc tion is an alloy of aluminum and copper, and in weight is only a half of that of the steel from the modern pullman cars are constructed. Well-what of it? The achieve ment doubtless marks an important advance in the field of engineering, but who wants to travel at the rate of a hundred and ten miles an hour? Under certain circumstance such speed may be of importance, as when a surgeon is hastening to an operation or a person is endeavoring to reach the deathbed of a dear one. For all practical pur poses, however, this accelerated speed in travel seems not only use less but a positive detriment.

About three years ago we were all traveling along at a mighty fast pace, not only in railway and automobile transportation, but in every other conceivable activity. Speed is like the elasticity in a rubber band. You can stretch it so far and then it snaps. Something did snap in our industrial and social system. One of its major causes was the speed with which we were manufacturing goods, making money and trying to find the ultimate pleasure in living. H. G. Wells argues that the "present civilization consists of children playing in a nursery with poison razor blades. We boast of our scientific achievements but forget that such achieve ments do not necessarily mean progress. On the contrary they may mean the destruction of civilization.

If traveling at the rate of a hun dred and ten miles an hour will aid in making permanent the moral and spiritual element in our civilization, all well and good. But is speed, however expressed, inherently caps ble of producing that effect?

Never was it more important than at the present moment that we redeed of the world, if civilization is to endure.

SEVERAL thousand members of the code authorities gathered in Constitution hall, Washington, at the call of the President to revise and strengthen NRA industrial agreements. The opening session was formal and rather stately, with the members of the cabinet, other high government officials and many senators and congressmen present. Before this assembly came Mr. Roosevelt to tell not so much what had been accomplished in the last twelvementh as what he hoped for in the near future. He warned the industrial leaders that "the government cannot forever continue to absorb the whole burden of unemploy-He called for greater tection of small business, terming the code authority "the keeper of your small industrial brother." Briefly summarized, this is what

Mr. Roosevelt proposed: Wage increases and shortening of ours to bolster consuming power and spread employment. Greater adherence by the people to the Blue Eagle symbol to make all "play the game." Continued enforcement of the anti-trust laws to retain competition and prevent monopoly. Strict adherence by employers to the law allowing free choice by employees of representatives to do their collective bargaining. Permanent reorganization of the economic and social structure along the lines already started. General Johnson, NRA administrator, wound up the code authority sessions with the blunt announcement that the Blue Eagle rules were to be tightened up and the assertion: "I have been too gentle. 'You ain't seen nothing yet.' " Urging the industrialists to play the game fairly, the general uttered three warnings. One was that under specific orders from the President the NRA was reorganizing to enforce the penal sections of the act; the second, that the country faces this spring "the worst epidemic of strikes in our history because of illegal interposition of employers in the matter of company unions; the third, that, with the recent Supreme decision upholding the New York state emergency milk law, the administration has dropped all hesitation, and is ready to use the powers of the industrial law to the lim-

It if opposition forces it." To draft his new plan for making more jobs, Johnson asked the code authorities of the heavy goods industries and of the consumer groups to select twelve men each.

President Roosevelt, said the administrator, has approved the plan for putting teeth in the NRA. President himself intimated that he would ask congress to extend the time limit on the licensing provisions of the NRA. The act gives authority to the President to place any industry under license and to re voke the license of any concern in the industry, thereby compelling it to shut down. This authority to license expires next June under the terms of the recovery act which granted it for one year only, where as the life of the act was limited to

President's determination to establish a New Deal that amounts to a social revolution

Mr. Roosevelt himself, in a brief address on the occasion of the installing of Dr. J. M. Gray as chancellor of the American university in Washington, said "one of the most salient features of the salient vear in our American life has been the amazing and universal increase in the interest" of the people in the subject of government. The joint congressional Republican campaign committee took occasion to issue a statement declaring that the administration ends its first year "with many platform pledges untried and practically abandoned, with policies unshaped and conflicting, with its monetary program bewilderingly uncertaina situation baffling enough to prove a hindrance to a return to pros perity."

Replying for the supporters of the administration, Senator Hiram Johnson of California, nominally a Republican, said:

"It is not necessary to agree with all that has been done in every conceivable particular, but unfair and unjust would be the individual who mitted to the bar twenty years ago her legal career in Ohio has been notable. In 1922 she was elected

The Democrats, with the exception of Connally, made no reply to the verbal barrage. The Ohio senator said that hog prices had fallen instead of rising. that the prices of farm commodities not under the AAA had in many cases risen faster and higher than the so-called basic commodities.

"That sort of thing is nauseating to any decent person who wants business to be done in a business way," he said, alluding to the hog buying program. "It's time to stop this foolish experimentation, time to take the heavy hand of government off business and let business recover.'

Senator Vandenberg and Senator McNary could not understand why $200,000,000 were required for cattle when only $100,000,000 were asked in the original bill covering six commodities.

They suggested that benefits were to be paid before a processing tax was levied and that perhaps no processing tax was intended to be levied on cattle. Senator Connally fumed, but could not answer their queries

"I think I can answer." See Dickinson finally put in. "The AAA has obligated itself for $855,000,-000 in benefits; an additional $881. 000,000 are called for 1935. treasury receipts show only $208,-000,000 received from processing

"In other words, a potential deficit at the present time of more than $600,000,000," remarked Senstor Vandenberg.

CHICAGO'S most sensational mur-der trial in recent years resulted in the conviction of the elderly Dr. Alice Wynekoop who was charged with killing her daughterin-law, Rheta, presumably to get the insurance on her life. The fury fixed her penalty at 25 years in the penitentiary, which amounts to a life sentence. The first hearing of the case resulted in a mistrial because the defendant was too ill for its continuance.

Doctor Wynekoop, a member of a family of physicians, had practiced medicine in Chicago for many years and her crime astounded her numerous friends.

MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSE-VELT, accompanied by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Tugwell and others, took an aerial trip to the Caribbean islands, the spe-cial purpose of which was to visit Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. From Miami they flew via Cube to Port Au Prince, Haiti, and San Pedro in the Dominican republic, and thence to San Juan and St. Thomas. The last named town gave the First Lady a gay welcome. She made a brief study of social and economic conditions there and took part in the dedication of a honpital building named "The Anna Eleanor building" in her honer. After a hop to St. Croix, also in the Virgin Islands, the party returned to San Juan.

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff, Tenth Michigan District).

Speaking for the President's proposal to take over the treatvmaking and tariff-imposing power of Congress, entrusted to the legislative body by the framers of our Constitution, there appeared before the Ways and Means Committee, of which I am a member, this past week, Secretary of State Cordell Hull, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, and Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper. The cause they espouse has to do with lowering the tariffs and their every argument was weighed with the conclusion which seems impractical to me, that the United Sates, since it is now a creditor nation, must buy from foreign nations in ever-increasing quantities.

It was impossible to escape the impression that these men are dreaming of a world in which free and unrestricted interchange of commodities between nations on a basis of producing where the natural elements and costs of labor conspire to make production the cheapest, is the goal toward which they would proceed with out delay. Ignoring the difference in costs of production, standards of living and organization of society in this country as compared to other parts of the world, they offer another plan to concentrate power in the hands of the Chief Executive, power which they in stead of the President would administer, and which further deprives the people of the nation of control of their own affairs through parliamentary action.

Government in which Congress participates means a continuance of a government of nationalism government by those mentioned above means a government ever moving toward internationalism and at a time when every other nation in the world has abandoned internationalism and is becom ing self-sustaining as rapidly as possible.

If their apparent plan is carried to its ultimate conclusion, we will buy all our sugar from Cuba our beef from the Argentine, our wheat from Australia, Canada. and the Argentine, our wool and mutton from Australia and the Argentine, our dairy products from Australia, New Zeeland and Denmark, our beans and peas from Japan, our tomatoes from Mexico, our onions from Spain, our coal from England, our machinery and cutlery from Great Britain and Germany, and our petroleum products from Russia.

Can it be that the representa tives of the people in Congress will close their eyes to the fact that the rest of the world is in a veritable frenzy of nationalism and self-sufficiency, of repudiation of debts and sacred obligations as between nations? Where can there be found a more reckless disregard for the solemnity obligations and the sanctity contracts between sovereign tions than is exhibited by our foreign debtors in refusing pay even the interest on their debts to us? It is common knowledge that at the time France first of either interest or principal on her debt to us, there were seven hundred millions of dollars of her gold in the vaults of this country lead of France in this respect

We have had another example which indicates the road gentlemen would have us travel in the attempts made to put through Congress legislation would result in the destruction of the sugar-beet industry in this country and turn that part of our sugar market now supplied by the American producer over to our Cuban neighbors to the south. The Intramural League for boys of the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades has concluded its season.

This league played a schedule of nine games and the Tigers, captained by Don Kangas and coached by George Hanson, came through with the winning percent-age of .667 for the six games they played. The Tigers defeated their rivals by means of a consistent offense that faltered but twice in games with the second-place team the Wildcats.

The Tigers used the following men in their line-up:

Don Kangas, Capt., Gierke, Floyd Wylie, Alex anowski, Homer King, Ward, Charles Muth. Lloyd Daniel

The Grayling High School Hi-Y club sponsored this league for the second year and supplied the referees, scorers, and timers. Be sides the regular league schedule three games were played Frederic High School and while the teams of league All-Stars failed to win one of these games, ye the rivalry was good and worth developing.

The league has seen several or its members move on up to either the first or second high school teams and besides giving lively competition and a lot of fun. th boys have been learning to handle their arms and legs and enjoy the chance to increase their skill with benefit to themselves and their school.

This year the student body has had several assembly programs, and listened to many interesting and instructive speeches. Last Thursday they had the pleasure of hearing Professor E. V. Gotter of the University of Michigan and District Conservation Officer Aldrich speak on the subject of preserving the forests.

Professor Gotter began by comparing the forests of 40 or 50 years ago to those of the present day. During this "Paul Bunyar Period", he said, Michigan w producing more timber than any other state. Now it is using three times as much as is being cut The approximate cost is $10 for every 1000 board feet of timber brought into Michigan. From 15 to 20 million dollars is spent on freight alone. This is indeed very

Some few say that it is impos sible to grow enough timber to supply this need. It is Professor Gotter's opinion that it can be done. A great deal of this part of the country is given over farming-the land of which, in parts, is unsuitable. This could be used for profitable timber growing.

It is also well to look into the future. Resorting is now the second biggest business in the state. It is not at all improbable that it shall grow. The attractions for these resorters seem to be our fine pine forests, lakes and game. If these forests continue to be destroyed, a great factor in the increase of this trade would be removed.

It is the duty of the people preserve the forests-not only for Another military revelation is a bullet invented by a German, Heinrich Gerlich. The bullet is of a .25 caliber type with soft metal wings or fins, capable of an initial speed of 5,800 feet per second or about 4,000 miles per hour, twice the speed of the ordinary high powered bullet. This bullet is termed the "winged horror not only because it will penetrate half an inch of armor plate, but for its great explosive power similar to that of the dum-dum bullet which spreads upon strikland ing the target.
